Gentlemen:

Our determination letter to you dated August 5, 1958 concerning your exemption from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 contained the following paragraph.

"It will not be necessary for you to file the annual return of information, Form 990-A, generally required of organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as you come within the specific exceptions contained in section 6033(a) of the Code."

This paragraph was included in error. The following paragraph should have been included in its place.

"You are required, however, to file an information return, Form 990-A, annually, with the District Director of Internal Revenue so long as this exemption remains in effect. This form may be obtained from the District Director of Internal Revenue, at the address shown above, and is required to be filed on or before the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of your annual accounting period."

Our determination letter of August 5, 1958 is therefore modified accordingly.

SJ
Very truly yours,

J.C. Woods
District Director

Any such changes should be reported immediately to this office, in order that their effect upon your exempt status may be determined.

It will not be necessary for you to file the annual return of information, Form 990-A, generally required of organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as you come within the specific exceptions contained in section 6033(a) of the Code.

Contributions made to you are deductible by the donors in computing their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, to or for your use are deductible in computing the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by section 2055 and section 2106(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
